Happy 101st Birthday, Floating Point

1914: Torres y Quevedo proposes automatic computing with fraction & exponent.
2015: We still use a format designed for World War I hardware capabilities.